Question 7 has 18 answers (Open Text)

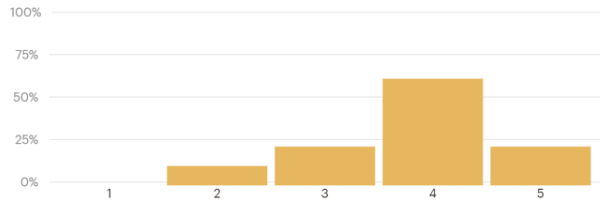

"What are the biggest challenges you face to attending FULL COALITION meetings?"

- "The commitment, and not seeing actual action being implemented as a former co chair on the task force I wish I could've seen actual work being done."
- "Late notice of meeting logistics."
- "The fact that they are held during the day and they can compete with other more critical meetings and/or task."
- "As a student in high school, the in person meetings are typically held on Wednesdays during the school day, and therefore I cannot attend these meetings. I also am unaware of any zoom meetings that take place, when they occur, or where to log in from."
- "I attend high school and have had to talk to my principal to get excused."
- "Need virtual option"
- Schedule / Conflicting meetings - 7
- Nothing - 5

Question 9 has 15 answers (Open Text)

“What could the coalition do/provide to increase YOUR engagement in the coalition?”

- "Full time job commitments and schedule limits my engagement with the coalition"
- "Insightful meetings"
- "More funding opportunities"
- "Engage more youth."
- "I have felt frustrated by the lack of participation from our city leaders in assuring the Coalition goals are moved forward. We created an excellent plan but I feel there is minimal government and community investment in realizing them."
- "I would love to be more engaged by changing the in person meetings to a weekend and making the zoom link more accessible."
- "More direct information and request of need for my involvement. I want to fit in where I best can be utilized, but will not know where to begin without direction."
- "Meetings in the evenings. Thank outside of the box when holding the meetings - speed meetings, organization highlight tables, recognition/shoutout to organizations/people on positive things they have done and/or doing."
- "Monday or Wednesday afternoon meeting time(s), or Tuesday or Thursday morning meeting time(s)"
- "Build a collaborative model that truly supports one another"
- "Continue to design and demonstrate opportunities for collaboration between organizations in the Coalition."
- "Provide opportunities for me to highlight my organization or achieve my organization's goals."
